Gail's Diary,

Just got back from a weekend
show - filled the van as usual. great new stuff. Lots from Family Heirloom - great quilts,
etc. Another fun shopping day.

If this rain would only stop -
we could get outside to get prepared for our weekend. Scarecrows up and our large pumpkin head, out front.

We have another writer
coming in from Boston this weekend to check out our 16 stores included in our Country Roads Christmas. This is finally going to put us on the map.

The Templeton Annual Pumpkin fair is scheduled for Oct 22.

Bring your carved pumpkin to the Templeton Common on Saturday October 22nd from 3-8 pm for the First Annual Pumpkin Festival. Prizes will be awarded to the scariest, ugliest and best overall. Family event with face painting and games. Come join in the fun!!

Pumpkins of any size are available at Country mischief for $4.00 per pumpkin.

The Templeton Annual Scarecrow Contest is scheduled for Oct 15.

Kits costing $5.00 are available at Country Mischief during business hours starting Oct 1 through Oct 15, 2011. Prizes are judged on several criteria with prizes awarded at 4:30PM on Oct 15. After the contest, the Scarecrows will be placed at one of the 4 precinct commons, indicated by the address of each scarecrow creator, until Oct 29th where each scarecrow must be removed by its owner before halloween. All proceeds go to the Templeton 250 Anniversary Celebration Fund to support the many activities planned in 2012. Further details and order forms are available on the www.templeton250.com website.
